

Educational and Dramatic Club Slovenia

Slovene Language Program 2012

FOR BEGINNERS

Winter Quarter: January 2 through March 12 (11 2hr. sessions)

Spring Quarter: March 19 through May 28 (11 2hr. sessions)

- Mondays, 6:30 - 8:30 PM, Slovenian Hall, 2101 Mariposa, San Francisco
- Instructor Mia Rode, Senior Librarian Emerita, Stanford University, and native of Slovenia
- Tuition for each term - $200
- Basic Textbook - A,B,C...1,2,3, gremo (2008, $50)

The course is intended for beginners with no or only minimal knowledge of Slovene, and those who wish to refresh their rudimentary knowledge of the language. Basic everyday speaking will be emphasized. Grammar will be presented in context of the textbook lessons with emphasis on practical usage. Textbook will be supplemented by the instructor with material from other sources and exercises as needed. Slovene→English/English→Slovene dictionary will be needed. The Spring quarter continues from the Winter quarter

For registration, please complete the bottom portion of the form and mail along with your check made payable to "Club Slovenia" to:

Silvia Perovsek
5610 Sierra Ave.
Richmond, CA 94805
Phone: (510) 237-0210

Please list any comments/questions (including interest in advanced classes) on the reverse side of the registration form.

----- return bottom portion of form ----- return bottom portion of form -----

Name _____ Address _____

City _____ Zip Code _____

Phone _____ E-Mail _____

_____ Quarterly tuition at $200 per student = $ _____

_____ Textbooks at $50 each = $ _____

TOTAL ENCLOSED $ _____

Language Survey:	Level of Study			Level of Knowledge
	High School	College	Other	A little	Conversation	Read/Write
SLOVENE
OTHER(S):						